After centuries -- weeks, months, decades, perhaps even years -- of trials and tribulations...some of which even we don't believe (would you believe lovelorn printers, broken presses, and sticky paper? No? Thought so...), we have a publication date for the THIRD SEASON SUPPLEMENT TO THE STAR TREK CONCORDANCE! ...like, wow!

AT LAST! The publication all fandom has been waiting for! (You have been waiting for it, haven't you?) In all its offset glory, filled to its 50-page capacity with illustrations and information! Fun to read, fun to own, and your for a mere pittance (and a pittance doesn't buy much, any more!).

MATHOM HOUSE, a definitely non-profit fan publishing and general kipple collection center, has done it again! With the same verve and enthusiasm shown by the publication of THE STAR TREK CONCORDANCE OF PEOPLE, PLACES & THINGS, we present this Supplement to the original book. PLUS additions and corrections to the Concordance, and even a very un-serious and enjoyable question-and-answer section to those questions about the publications.

All this, and full-page portrait drawings of the main characters by top artists, for only $3.00 ...and we pay postage!

Publication date is March, 1972.

STILL AVAILABLE: THE STAR TREK CONCORDANCE OF PEOPLE, PLACES & THINGS, published in a beautifully offset fanzine (that's a non-profit amateur publication) with many illustrations. Like the Supplement, this book has encyclopedic information about everything shown or mentioned in the television series, STAR TREK; with show plots, data and artwork. The Concordance covers the first two seasons in 82 pages of interesting reading;(the Supplement covers the third season, with additions and corrections.)

$5.00 per copy, postpaid.
